

Walvis bomb

IT IS a pleasure for me to write this letter to The Namibian, because it is the true newspaper of Namibia.

At the beginning of this year I was arrested in Walvis Bay in connection with the bomb which exploded in the Atlanta Meat Market in that town.

The socalled security police tried to force me to take responsibility for the explosion, but I regarded this as false blame and intimidation.

They too two photographs of me and confiscated some of my documents, which are until today, still in their possession.

To the youth of Namibia, I want to say that they should not fear such intimidation from the Botha government. We must follow in the footsteps of our parents because we are the leaders of tomorrow.

Comrades, pray for Resolution 435 and elections under the supervision of the United Nations because this is the peaceful solution for our beloved Namibia.
