

To the misguided

I WOULD like to warn those misguided elements of our society who seem to have misunderstood the meaning of independence.

I am particularly referring to those who are not happy with Comrade James Chivikwa for having taken the good step of apprehending those who have stolen other people's property, such as cars.

Those unsocial elements who are not happy that Comrade Chivikwa has done his duty must be condemned in the strongest terms.

Independence and forgiveness does not mean to protect the thieves and criminals in this country. We have liberated Namibia in order to restore peace and freedom for our people, regardless of colour or creed.

Namibia has not been liberated to have freedom for chaos and insecurity.

I believe that Inspector Chivikwa is doing his national duty in the correct way for the goodness and protection of our people. Those who have stolen the vehicles belonging to others must make sure that they don't do so again.

We freedom lovers must make sure you are brought to book for your criminal deeds. Our government will not submit to blackmail and you must be dealt with by the law of the land. Theft is theft whether you stole from a black or a white citizen.

We cannot allow a lawless society here and I salute Cde Chivikwa for a job well done.
