

On DTA tactics

IT is with anger and frustration that I am writing this letter to the people's paper.

For the past few weeks since the election campaign went into top gear, the DTA has embarked upon some unorthodox ways in its hopeless bid to try and win potential voters in Katutura. Every morning at 05h00 I have been waking to a bizarre sound from the DTA Nissan minibus which roams the streets of Katutura endlessly.

This not only reflects the way in which the DTA regards the people of Katutura with contempt, ie. through disturbing their rest and peace; but also their inherent racist ideology. They don't go around like this in 'white' Windhoek. Because for them, those people or residents need their rest dearly, while the residents of Katutura apparently don't.

This, I am sure many would agree, does amount to psychological intimidation and the sooner we see an end to it, the better. I demand this as a resident of Katutura who is affected by this corrupt practice. I am sure that this is also the demand of the majority of patriotic residents.
