

Outrage over Caprivi detention

THE LEADER of the Basubia group (whose name appeared in the people's paper of February 7) Ngambela (Prime Minister) Robert Ntelamo Sinvula of the Bukalo authority, has been abducted from his group and leadership by the Katima Mulilo security police, and jailed.

□ on several occasions roadblocks were set up for him and his people by police and army;

□ his people were forced by police to join political parties like the DTA and UDP;

□ Mr Sinvula is a man of principle, law and order and discipline among his people, and he controlled his group for the maintenance of peace; □ he stood for the truth and because he opposed confusion among his group he was jailed under AG 9, which is contrary to the bill of rights.

Mr Sinvula practised law and order among his people.

I therefore call for the immediate release of our leader, Mr Sinvula. Why should the security police involve themselves in politics among our people? Why are they forcing our people to become violent?

The Basubia people are now exposed to violence since the man who controlled their temper has been abducted.

All the people in Katima detained under AG 9 are members of the Basubia group. One of the detainees, Mr Richard Kamwi, has disappeared. How could he have escaped when under lock and key, and handcuffed for several days while in prison. The security police know where he is. Why should they say he has escaped?
