

SA encourages division among us

FIRSTLY, I WOULD like to congratulate the local journalists who are trying to bring news to the country as a whole, in the form of news, and not one-sided propaganda. But we must allow readers to express their opinions in the people's paper.

As a Namibian I would like to refer to certain aspects as far as the situation here is concerned.

We have seen in the past that progressive forces have been fighting for our rights which have been, and still are, denied to us.

We want to show the people of Namibia and the world at large that the South African Government is encouraging division and separation among us. Certain people, because of a love of money, did not realise this and they wanted certain patriotic organisations to be banned.

The question is whether they have seen a change in Namibia. We want to show that our people are fighting for equal rights, justice, peace and prosperity in the region where we can come together and live as one.

Peace in the region will only be achieved when neighbouring countries do not attack one another, and the rights of people are considered, with reference to self-determination and national aspirations.

We the Namibians, reject the use of our country as a base and buffer against neighbouring, peaceloving countries.

We also appeal to those in the Tintenpalast to note the activities of Unita, who claim 'Red' involvement in the region. We are aware that they are not a threat to our peace.

I appeal to all Namibians to realise and make themselves aware of who is fooling whom, and to support the immediate implementation of UN Resolution 435.

In praise of freedom - and The Namibian

I WOULD like to congratulate the staff of The Namibian on their success.

Secondly, I would like to express my views on the political situation in our country.

I am worried about freedom movements and apartheid in Namibia. Freedom movements are divided and try and take over the political forum by criticising one another.

I am also tired of apartheid in Walvis Bay. People tell me that we have a new government, but they do nothing about the situation in Walvis Bay.

The black people in Walvis Bay are not allowed in the hotels and they may not stay in town. So the new government appears not to have anything to do with Walvis Bay or northern Ovamboland.

There should be no apartheid in Namibia. To say this one is white and that one is black is totally wrong. We must become one nation, one people and one community.

We want a one party government in Namibia. I am not a member of any organisation and I will only take out membership provided there is only one freedom movement and no apartheid.
