

that it will not let these acts go unchallenged, and if these do not stop, may have disastrous consequences.

Nanso throws its full support behind the students of J A Nel and their genuine demands, such as the introduction of English as a medium of instruction at schools; the cessation of the use of Koevoet to solve problems. Nanso further urges the parents of the students concerned to pledge solidarity and not to allow themselves to be victims of government manoeuvres viz. to isolate them from their children's issues and by trying to seek scapegoats beyond the borders of the conflict.

On anti-Swapo

ON JUNE 9, I received anonymous anti-Swapo literature. I have learned that the literature has been circulated to many people who are suspected of being members of Swapo in the Kavango.

What surprised me is that this literature is the act of a coward, since the documentation is not attributed or named. The literature is full of mixed texts extracted from various unknown newspapers accompanied by a poor Rukwangali version. It is also full of anti-Nujoma statements such as 'Nujoma het geslaan', and 'Vuishou 'n skok', to mention but a few.

Some Swapo executives in Kavango were warned about what they were doing. There is also a page of pictures of eight people, probably emanating from the so-called Parents Committee, with question marks. These eight people are those they believe have been executed by the movement.

I warn those, whom this literature concerns, to cease abusing my name in your dirty and devilish activities. Shame on you! Don't you know that all those Kavango-speaking people who left to join Swapo abroad, did it of their own accord? Don't you know that they fled the draconian laws of a cruel colonialist regime in this country? Don't you know that these people (the Kavango-speaking people allegedly detained by Swapo) are enjoying a protected life; more so than us who are daily frightened and threatened by the machinery of apartheid?

Who are you? You do not have contact with the parents of the children in question. The anonymous person who wrote to me was not Kavango-speaking for he did not know the spelling of my first name. I am not 'Haiki'. The writer might be white Afrikaans speaking, for they always call me that. Anyway, stop using my name!

Regarding the allegation of Mr Sam Nujoma having hit a woman - we have already read and listened to the true newsmedia. President Nujoma is not the irresponsible person that you think.

We expect that you could contribute more towards the people who are trying to facilitate the implementation of UN Resolution 435 which is the only way to bring about peace in Namibia, and not the way of propaganda which you have chosen. Pray with us.

Let my people go!

IN THE Windhoek Advertiser of Wednesday June 10, a 'Senior spokesman for the office of the Administrator General' alleged that I signed a document under oath declaring that I 'would only visit West Germany'. I don't know anything of 'a document' which I signed making a declaration restricting myself to visit only West Germany.

As I already informed that office in my letter of 7.4.87 which is completely being ignored, I was a member in an Interconfessional church delegation which was not only due to visit West Germany, but also other European countries, Scandinavia, Canada and the USA. The AG's office was inform-
