

Central Committee meeting at Oshikuku on June 7, the youth rejected and condemned the ban. Furthermore they described it as an inhuman action.

We are not surprised, but are concerned about the youth who have to suffer, on the one hand, from detention, and on the other, from reading their spiritual newsletter.

The youth appealed to those responsible for the ban to stop robbing people of their rights, and to stop interfering in church affairs. They should also unban the Omukuni, so that it may reach our people in the prisons.

Lacking in love

ALLOW ME to express my views on Messrs Andreas Shipanga, Moses Katjiuongua, and Fanuel Kozonguizi, about their positions and what they are doing to the suffering Namibian people.

As a brother and fellow countryman, I would be guilty if I did not state my views in regard to your present positions, labelled as cabinet ministers by an unelected interim government appointed by the South African Government; being used as carriers of apartheid and collaborators of the South African Government; and being used to oppress the already oppressed suffering Namibian people, your own people, your own blood.

Did you know you are delaying the country's independence by allowing yourselves to be used by the South African Government which is still exploiting our natural civilian population.

How did you feel at the time, giving approval to an army of occupation?

Brothers, I want to remind you that your forerunners, and others who have sold out to the enemy, are forgotten, and were discarded like rotten fruit to the dustbin. You should seriously reconsider your positions in opposing your own people.

You know you don't have the support of even two percent of the Namibian people, so please open the doors for Resolution 435 to elect our leaders. We know them well.

My message to peace-loving Namibians is that they should unite and fight the darkness of evil among us. Let us fight for our future generations, and leave money and cars to the sellouts.

Mondesa call

THE TIME has dawned for the residents of Mondesa to stand united and to take cohesive action, organising themselves into a mass boycott to resist the increased housing tariffs with which we are burdened.

Rumours are rife in the township that an imminent increase is to be effected as from June-July, for sewerage. At present, we are made to pay for water, refuse and rentals. What we are anticipating in the future is that we will be made to pay for assessment rates and other sundries, although we are not the rightful property owners.

At present we are also wasting our money paying for worn-out,
