

Anti-Conference

I AM against the conference planned for May this year by the Secretary General of the Council of Churches (CCN) the Reverend Ngeno Nakhamela about the detainees during the war.

I am also against the feedback given by the so-called Executive Director of the Society for Human Rights Mr Ya Nangolo.

These ideas must be stopped before they re-open the wounds which have just been treated by national reconciliation.

If things go like this, let us put reconciliation aside and start to fight, because Mr Ya Nangolo always fights people.

A psychological war is more painful than a war with guns.

Why can't we stay in peace rather than fight each other.

Forgive and peace shall set us free.
