

Are We Going Crazy?

ON the unbelievable benefits to government leaders: Are we going crazy? What is this all about? While we face unemployment, poverty, former veterans receiving a mere N$120 pension how can it be that the President gets a tax free winding up allowance equal to that of a minister? This consists of three vehicles: 1 x Benz, 1 x BMW, 1 x 4x4; a suitable furnished office; around the clock security; four international air travel journeys; a staff consisting of 1 x housekeeper, 1 x cooks, 1 x laundry-man, 2 x domestic servants; 1 x gardener, 1 x private secretary, 1 x personal secretary, 1 x office attendant, 1 x aide de camp, 4 x security personnel, 4 x drivers. In total 20. Pure madness. The Prime Minister receives a tax free winding up allowance of N$600 000, ... 2 x vehicles, full time security and staff, 1 x housekeeper, 1 x cook, 1 x domestic servant, 1 x gardener, 1 x personal secretary, 3 x security personnel, 2 x drivers. A total of 10 people.

The rest of the benefits are in the newspaper. Dear Government, this is not your money. This is taxpayer's money.

Are you following Mobuto's example? Did you manage to reach your manifesto dreams?
