Goodwill to all

CHRISTMAS is a day of prayer, peace and harmony. I want to call on all Namibians to observe it as such and to pray for peace and unity for Namibia and people all over the world.

Everyone should take time off to be happy and enjoy the festive season. A great man was born on Christmas Day, a man who brought freedom to the world. Jesus Christ himself wants to see a new Namibia born, and its people living in peace.

I would like to wish everyone a time of peace and unity, and a happy Christmas. Everyone should also promise themselves to continue with the good they have been doing for their community.
